Dear Attorney Miller,

Representative Kessler would like the attached language drafted into a resolution recognizing October 6, 2013 as German-American Day. Please let me know if I can provide you with anything further.

Thank you.

Christina M. Tenuta, J.D.
Office of Wisconsin State Representative Frederick P. Kessler, 12th Assembly District
608-266-5813

Relating to: recognizing October 6th as German-American Day.

Whereas, October 6th, 2013 is the 330th anniversary of the day that thirteen families landed in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania after an oversea journey from Krefeld, Germany; and

Whereas, the thirteen families, 33 people in all, of Mennonite and Quaker decent, under the leadership of legal scholar Franz Daniel Pastorius, founded Germantown six miles north of Philadelphia; and

Whereas, Germantown, Pennsylvania is recognized as the first permanent settlement of immigrants from Germany in the original thirteen American colonies; and

Whereas, German immigrants supplied America with a workforce that helped shape and embody the American dream; and

Whereas, according to a study done by the 1979 United States Census Bureau, more Americans trace their lineage back to Germany than any other nation; and

Whereas, in 1983, President Ronald Reagan proclaimed the first German-American Day for the 300th anniversary of the arrival of the first German settlers in America; and

Whereas, in 1987, Congress approved Senate Joint Resolution 108, designating October 6th, 1987 as German-American Day and was signed into law later that year; and

Whereas, in 2009, President Barack Obama proclaimed October 6th as German-American Day to celebrate German Americans for their remarkable role in our Nation's development; and

Whereas, German-American Day is a widely renowned holiday often accompanied by Oktoberfests, Steuben Parades, and many other special festivities; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the assembly, the senate concurring, That in recognition of the importance of the contribution of German-American citizens to the United States of America, the members of the Wisconsin legislature do hereby proclaim October 6, 2013, to be German-American Day and encourage citizens to learn more about the countless German-American contributions to society and to show their pride in appropriate celebrations.
